Sir:

The Thomas Jefferson National Affairs Study Group consists of students of the University of Virginia who share an interest in the workings of the national government. Our activities are designed to provide insights into how policies are made and influenced. This spring, for example, we visited Washington March 10 through 14 for meetings with twenty-five policy-makers, including Senator Adlai Stevenson, Justice Potter Stewart and Economic Advisor Lyle Gramley.

This fall we are conducting a one-day Washington Seminar devoted specifically to foreign policy. We feel your participation would greatly enhance our Seminar and we would appreciate it if you could share 45 minutes to an hour of your time with us. We expect to send a group of about twenty students to Washington some time between Wednesday, November 12, and Friday, November 21. If you could let us know what times within this framework would be good for you, we will get back to you to make further arrangements as to a specific time and place for the interview.

We look forward to hearing from you and hope that your schedule will permit you to meet with us. Thank you for your generous consideration.

Very truly yours,
